EDITORIAL COMMENT

SITUATION GETTING BETTER.

The situation in Nevada and New York is getting better each day, the golden lining to the financial clouds growing brighter as time flows on. There is money in plenty in New York, and there is plenty of money in Nevada. It is a hundred to one shot that the State Bank and Trust Company will open its doors and pay every depositor dollar for dollar. And every other bank which is now closed will follow suit.

The country from the east to the west is teeming with prosperity, and there is an abundance of everything on all hands. Only two places have been affected—New York, where they spend the money, and Nevada, where they make it. The financial situation now has behind it the class of men who are willing to go the limit to save the credit of the country, and when the trouble is over in New York, it will be over in Nevada, and the mining interests of this State will be launched on a sea of commerce which will be clear from the rocks of wildcatting and poor promoting. Perhaps, after all, the shake-up will be to our benefit. It has certainly been an interesting experience, to profit by which it is up to Nevada.

Proclamation by the Governor

STATE OF NEVADA.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

Whereas it has been made to appear to me, JOHN SPARKS, Governor of Nevada, that a financial crisis and depression exist, which have affected and threaten to materially affect the banks and bankers of this Commonwealth, and to jeopardize the business relations between the people thereof, and to otherwise injure the people of the State of Nevada and their general welfare and well-being; and

Whereas, it has been further made to appear to me that it is expedient that I do proclaim Thursday, the 24th day of October, A. D. 1907, Friday, the 25th day of October, A. D. 1907, and Saturday, the 26th day of October, A. D. 1907, legal holidays for all intents and purposes, that all may have an opportunity to inquire and examine into the matters and things hereinbefore set forth, to ascertain the present status of their affairs, and to devise ways and means to provide for the protection of such institutions, the business relations of this Commonwealth, and for the welfare and well-being of its people;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority in me vested, and in pursuance of the power conferred on me by law, I, JOHN SPARKS, Governor of the State of Nevada, do hereby proclaim Thursday, the 24th day of October, A. D. 1907, Friday, the 25th day of October, A. D. 1907, and Saturday, the 26th day of October, A. D. 1907, for all intents and purposes LEGAL HOLIDAYS, during which the said days the payment of all debts and obligations shall be suspended; and that if in the premises another proclamation shall be deemed advisable, the same shall be issued accordingly.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Nevada, at the Capitol, in Carson City, this 23d day of October, A. D. 1907.

JOHN SPARKS,

By the Governor:

Governor.

W. G. DOUGLASS,

By J. W. Legate, Deputy.

Secretary of State.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

A striking example of presence of mind had just occurred in the history lesson, and the teacher considered it an opportune moment for inculcating upon her class the amny advantages of resourcefulness.

"Now, children," she said, "supposing a tiger was to seize one of you in its hungry jaws and carry you off to the jungle, what would you do?"

No reply.

"You tell me, Tommy," she continued, pointing to one of the brightest youngsters.

Tommy hesitated.

"Come, Tommy," she said.

"Wouldn't you cry for help?"

"No, ma'am," said he. "Mother says little boys shouldn't speak at meal-times."—Answers.

SPEAKS OF US IN GLOWING TERMS

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—Mayor A. C. Harper, who has returned from a week's trip to the southern Nevada mining region, speaks admiringly of the hospitality with which he was treated and of the vast mineral resources of that country. He believes that the existing cordial relations may be further developed between the merchants of this city and of Goldfield, Rhyolite, Tonopah and Beatty, until that whole section is made tributary to Los Angeles.

The mayor advises the merchants of this city to send druggists to southern Nevada and also suggests that the civic organizations send representatives to Goldfield on Railroad day, when the last spike of the new road will be driven.

The chief obstacle to trade is the time it takes to transport freight from Los Angeles to Goldfield. But, according to assurance given Mayor Harper by an official of the Salt Lake railroad, the completion of the new railroad into Goldfield will make it possible to deliver freight from Los Angeles in forty hours.

"The merchants whom I met expressed themselves as being very friendly to Los Angeles," said Mayor Harper. "With proper effort on the part of our merchants we could annex a great deal of the trade that is now going to San Francisco and Sacramento. If our merchants will send druggists there and the railroad will furnish quick transportation for the freight, a wonderful expansion of trade to Nevada will be seen."

With Mayor Harper on the trip were M. J. McGarry, T. P. Cullen, Walter Clark and Douglas White.

SMELTERS REFUSE TO PAY FOR ORE

GOLDFIELD, Oct. 25.—A large force of men was laid off on the Mohawk yesterday, owing to the dilatory tactics of the smelters. Only men employed on development work were retained. The explanation given by Mr. Wingfield himself follows:

"We have 139 cars of ore between here and Millers station. This stuff is worth $175,000. The smelter people at first said they could not tell when payment would be made, but finally agreed to settle for the cars in transit. Under the present order of things we will ship no more ore. We will oppose any talk on the part of the smelters that they will settle at their convenience. We want money for our ore, and if we can't get it, we won't ship the ore. That is all there is to it."

Both the Nevada-Goldfield Reduction Company and the Western Ore Purchasing Company have ceased to receive ore until the financial situation clears sufficiently to allow them to make cash payments.

Attachment suits were filed yesterday against the Nevada-Goldfield Reduction Company by the Mohawk Combination Leasing Company for $14,310 for ore delivered since September 1, and by the Mohawk-Jumbo Leasing Company for $25,000 for ores delivered. The Mohawk Combination Leasing Company also filed another suit stating that $22,500 worth of their ore is detained by the defendant, and asking that it be delivered to them or payment made. This is no reflection upon the defendant, but is merely a legal measure of the plaintiffs to protect themselves while the ore is in transit, and is only another phase of the smelter deferred payment system.

GOLDFIELD CON.
MAY BUY MILL

GOLDFIELD, Oct. 25.—The Best and Belcher mill, with a capacity of two hundred tons a day, may become the property of the Goldfield Consolidated. The matter of buying the mill was considered at a meeting of the directors today, but adjournment was taken without anything definite being accomplished. Final action will be taken at the meeting of Tuesday. The directors have under consideration two other mills, and they expect to mill a very great tonnage in the near future.

MINERS VOTING ON PROPOSITION

WHETHER TO DECLARE NEVADA
POWER COMPANY UNFAIR OR NOT.

There was a meeting of the Western Federation of Miners at Blair last night for the purpose of voting on the proposition to declare a sympathetic strike with the men who walked out from the Nevada Light and Power Company, at Bishop, Cal. The question was whether the power company should be declared unfair, and in consequence the miners should quit work.

The proposition was voted down by a vote of 154 to 5.

There will be a meeting of the miners in Goldfield today to vote on the same proposition and the result will probably be the same as that in Blair.

Some months ago, the Western Federation formed the men employed in the construction of the company's new power plant into a union, and demanded for them a raise in wages. The demand was refused by the company and the men walked out. The light and power company discharged its men, and stopped the construction planed. There would seem to be nothing to fight about, but the vote will be taken just the same, and there will also be a vote taken in this camp.

BANKS WILL SOON RE-OPEN

declare that they will be in a position to pay every dollar to their depositors.

The situation, viewed from all points, looks good, and there seems to be no cause for apprehension. All the bank people talk well and are most cheerful in the circumstances. The people, too, are enjoying the enforced holiday.

There was some doubt in the minds of the directors of the Nevada First National Bank as to whether they were in their rights in having closed in respect to the Governor's proclamation. There was some wiring done to Washington, and yesterday the following reply was received:

Washington, D. C., Oct. 25, 1907.

Nevada First National Bank, Tonopah.

Legal holiday proclamation of Governor does not make your closing compulsory, but I advise co-operation in this with State banks, having due regard for customers with obligations due outside of Nevada, unaffected by proclamation, who should be taken care of, if possible. So far as notes, drafts and deposits are affected by the legal holiday, you are governed by statute laws.

WM. B. RIDGELEY,
Comptroller of Currency.

In answer to this the following was dispatched later:
Tonopah, Nevada, Oct. 25, 1907.

Hon. Comptroller of Currency,
Washington, D. C.

Your telegram of 25th received. Opened regularly for business on morning of 24th; closed later at request of State banks, out of respect for Governor's proclamation. Will take care of our depositors. We contemplate opening Monday, but agreeable to your suggestion, we will co-operate with State banks, and be governed by Governor's proclamation. NEVADA FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF TONOPAH.
